

THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE.

After the Sale Then what?

Preparation for fall and winter buying. This means there's lots of odds and ends, in remnants and short lengths that must get out of the way.

You know the reputation of this store—price never gets in the way when we've decided to get rid of any article in the house. We have in mind just now a lot of Boys Clothing, age 3 to 16 yrs. Several pieces of Matting. About 45 Summer Corsets (only six sizes left.) Quite a nice showing in Vol. Laces. Basketful Ribbon Remnants. And a great many little notions to clean up on. Drop in when passing.

Country Produce.

If you wish to buy Chickens, Eggs, Butter, or other Country Produce at the very lowest prices, give us your order by phone.

We carry the best line of Fancy Groceries and sell them at unusually low prices.

Goods delivered promptly.

FELIX LAKE.

SOAP

If you would enjoy the cleanliness, which is next to Godliness, you must be unstinted in the use of soap.

It will also promote your Health and Self Respect.

A full assortment of those for the toilet, including Colgate's; and for the laundry, at the head of which is Procter and Gamble's Oleine, at our store.

Miss Jeter's Opinion.

The accomplished and successful music teacher, Miss Ethel Jeter, who had charge of the Music Department of Tazewell High School last year, says of our Prize piano:

"I have examined the Harvard piano offered as a prize by the Clinch Valley News, and in my judgment, the instrument is all right, fine in tone and action, and the case is especially beautiful. It is an instrument of which any home might well be proud."

FREE PIANO!

In order to extend the circulation of our paper, and otherwise increase our facilities we make the unprecedented offer of this FINE PIANO FREE for new subscriptions.

The Piano will be awarded to the person or school receiving the highest number of votes by December 15, 1906.

The Plan is Simple:

Each new subscriber receives 200 votes for every year's subscription paid. Old subscribers, 100 votes for each year paid to date, and for each year paid in advance, 200 votes, the same as a new subscriber. Give us your subscriptions—we give you the piano. Vote the piano as you choose. The offer is not confined to any locality or person. The piano is first-class in every way, and can be seen and tried at the store of Hankins & Son.

The large firm of John Church & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, the makers, and the Ford Music Company, Bluefield, the agents, guarantee this fine Haryard for 10 years.

Get busy. What is a home without a piano?

For further particulars and list of contestants, see the paper, write, or call at the office.
